COURSE: Great Wall Spoken Chinese Level 1 (Beginner Part 2)

DESCRIPTION: This twelve-week short-term intensive spoken Chinese (Mandarin) course is designed for learners with the most basic language knowledge and skill in conducting some basic conversation in the formal as well as informal social settings in a variety of topics. The learning of Chinese character is optional depending on learners' interest and ambition. Practical daily conversation topics, such as talking about one's appearance, asking and telling someone's address, asking or telling about family members, asking and telling the time etc. will be learned with plenty of in-class drilling and practice. The practical goal of the course is to enable learners to apply the knowledge and skill that they learn in class to the actual cultural and social situations.

PREREQUISITE: 1) Having the knowledge of Pinyin and able to use Pinyin for very basic communication; 2) Having learned the most basic 80 Chinese words and expressions; 3) Having the basic knowledge of Chinese grammar
